

A HALLOWEEN STORY

"Hi, Sophie", Luke shouted as I came to his house. "Hey, Luke! Hey Sherlock! Oh Sherlock! Your costume is great! You are going to go as a ghost!" I said. "Yes!" Luke answered, "Dad bought it. First Sherlock was a bit scared of it. But now he loves it!", I laughed: "Ok! Then can we go now?", "Yes, my parents said we can go Trick-or-Treating until 8 o'clock", I looked at my watch: "Okay, so we are having 1,5 hours", "we can go to Dave now. Maybe he wants to go Trick-or-Treating too", Then we started with our walk.

As we were at Dave's house, we already had some sweets. Luke rang at the door. It was creaking spookily when Dave's mum opened us: "Hi, Luke! Hi, Sophie! Do you want to visit Dave?", "Yes...er...No...", I answered "Does he want to go Trick-or-Treating with us?", "Oh!" his mum said, "Sure. I think he is already ready to go out. One moment, please", She went to the living room: "Dave! Luke and Sophie are here!", "Really!?", Dave asked. Dave's mum came back to us: "He usually looks TV at night", "I'm coming!", Dave shouted. Suddenly we heard broken glass. Dave's mum turned around and ran into the living room. "Dave!", "Ah...er...sorry mum...", "What's happened?", Dave's mum asked. "I turned around and then I hit the water glass with my pumpkin costume "Oh Dave!", his mum laughed, "You are so a dumsy!", Now Luke and I laughed too.

After Dave cleaned the floor we went Trick-or-Treating.
